STEAKS FROM OUR BACK YARD

The deep red soils and mountain air combine for a prime pasture for our Atherton Grass Fed cattle. Grass feed beef is juicier, has less-fat and is more flavoursome. Most people have never actually experienced grass fed beef. Now is your chance. All steaks served at the Barron Valley Hotel are sourced from our back yard on the Atherton Tablelands.

HISTORY OF THE BARRON VALLEY HOTEL

The Barron Valley Hotel has been owned by the Nasser family since November 1930, when Lebanon born Scondor Nasser arrived in Atherton and bought the property. The hotel was rebuilt during the onset of WWII. This is when the Art Deco theme emerged, which is still present throughout the hotel today. Once rebuilt, the hotel featured 40 rooms, a pool room, 2 bars, a ballroom, and a dining room, partitioned off with splendid stained-glass concertina doors. Fortunately, the hotel hasn't been modernised too much since these renovations in the late 1930's. Today, the organisation lives to serve the Tableland Community through major sponsorships, sourcing workers for local businesses and farms, and providing fresh, locally produced food. The BV is also known to be the town's favourite late night watering hole and the owners have chosen to remain free of Poker machines. Listed with Australian Heritage Commission, the Barron Valley Hotel is one of Australia's most unique and historical hotels today. It has been recognised by the QHA as one of Queensland's most community focused hotels and the Nasser family endeavour to keep this reputation alive.

Thank you for choosing to dine at the Barron Valley Hotel.

Please note our 150ml wine serve is approx. 1.5 standard drinks.
